

22nd Jimmy Kim Invitational Taekwondo Championship

Dear Masters, Coaches, Competitors, Referees and Parents:

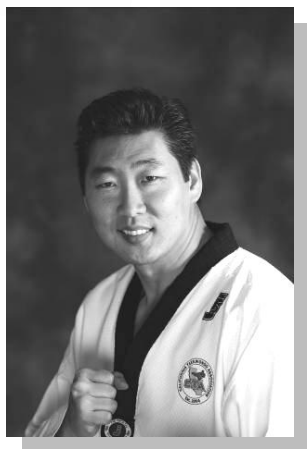

Grandmaster Chan Yong Kim and I invite you to participate in the 2011 Jimmy Kim Invitational Taekwondo Championship on Saturday, October 1, 2011 at the Walter Pyramid on the campus of California State University, Long Beach. Now in its twenty-second year of production, the Jimmy Kim Invitational (JKI) is one of the largest and most-well established Taekwondo tournaments in the nation. The JKI Organizing Committee and I are committed to refining the details of our tournament production in order to better provide a national-level Taekwondo tournament experience for masters, competitors, referees, coaches, volunteers and spectators.

Each year, we gather to participate in an event that will push us to and, sometimes, beyond our limits. Competition is an opportunity. It is in our human nature to seek opportunities to test ourselves in order to better understand our abilities, to overcome our fears, and to push past perceived boundaries. We endure long periods of conditioning, training and practice so that we may have an opportunity to be tested in a competition arena. The desire for excellence fuels many of us to be better than we thought we could be. At times, we are rewarded with personal victories and inspired by glimpses of greatness. Competition is never easy, never convenient, never perfect. But it is within our ability to rise above obstacles and adversity and participate with good sportsmanship regardless of the outcome.

We look forward to welcoming you to the 2011 Jimmy Kim Invitational Taekwondo Championship.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Kim

COACHING PROCEDURES & CODE OF CONDUCT

The JKIOC requests that you adhere to the procedures described below:

- Be familiar with current USAT™ rules. The rules can be found at: <http://usa-taekwondo.us/resources/competition-rules-referees>
- Be familiar with current USAT™ Junior Safety Rules.
- Register and pick up coach's pass at designated time and place. Coach badge is non-transferrable.
- Stay off the competition floor when not on deck or coaching.
- Coaches will be asked to submit their coach's badge while sitting in the coach's chair.
- Protests may only be done by coaches with a badge within 5 minutes of the decision and requires a $100 non-refundable fee. Once the fee is paid, the referee chair will arbitrate the protest. The referee chairman's decision is final.
- The coach will conduct oneself in an ethical and honorable manner. One will respect the referees, other coaches, athletes, volunteers. Violators will be given a warning. Subsequent offenses may result in the coaching privilege being revoked, and violators may be banned from future JKI events.
